

Inherent Manipulations

Another Quick Collection of Curving Walkway Publications
Snare Drum Music

These snare drum solos, each about one or two minutes in length, are part chops-training, part training for the musical mind, and part fun, not necessarily in that order or in equal proportion. It sort of depends on your experience level. They could take a little time to process, or they could be quick bits of diversion for idle hands. Enjoy each one on its own, or there are any number of combinations and orders if one is performing them on a concert. (If performing all of the movements as a suite, the order given in the contents below is suggested. For printed programs in that instance, use the overall title Inherent Manipulations, and list the individual titles as movements.)

contents:

I.

Graces Under Pressure

a happy little study to think about flams, drags, and four-stroke ruffs (about 30 seconds at tempo)

II.

Marvelous Rolls

single, double, and multiple-bounce rolls suitable for a superhero
(about 1:30 at tempo)

III.

Inherent Manipulations

a metric modulation "fun fest" for those who like math
(about 1:40 at tempo)

IV.

Paradiddle Flamdango

a fiery tour de force for the passionate flamdango dancer in all of us
(about 1:00 at tempo)

Thanks for Playing!
